Mary Gwendolyn Caldwell was the daughter of William Shakespeare Caldwell, who, after being a theatrical manager in England, settled in Richmond, Va., and eventually made a large fortune in building gas house in Chicago. St. Louis, Mobile and other cities. He married Miss Breckenridge, a famous Kentucky beauty. Miss Caldwell and her sister Lina spent the summers at Newport, where they had a magnificent house, and usually passed part of the winter, when they were not abroad, in New York. On the death of her father, Miss Caldwell inherited $2,000,000, and October 19, 1836, she was married to the Marquis Des Monstiers Merinville, a French nobleman. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Spalding, of Peorla, the guardian and administrator of the estate of Miss Caldwell. At the time of her marriage Miss Caldwell was a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years of age, and a devoted Roman Catholic. She had previously shown her devotion to the church Mary Gwendelyn Caldwell was devoted Roman Catholic. She had pre-viously shown her devotion to the church by giving $300,000 to found the divinity college of the Roman Catholic Univer-sity in Washington. Some seven years previous to her marriage, Miss Caldwell was engaged to Prince Murat. grandson of the King of Naples. The engagement was broken, because the Prince Insisted that half of Miss Caldwell's fortune should be settled upon him.
